

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Public Television Network offers a unique service to the citizens of South Dakota by broadcasting programs covering a wide perspective of cultural, educational and public interest affairs and by providing a mechanism for bridging communications gaps; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Public Television Network is a public, noncommercial venture existing only to serve the interests and tastes of all the citizens of our State, to help fill public needs and meet public problems; and,

WHEREAS, A national week of recognition for public television stations is being observed by the Public Broadcasting Service:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of March 7 - 17, 1975, as

PUBLIC TELEVISION AWARENESS WEEK

in South Dakota, and do urge the citizens of this State to make an effort to become aware of and support the valuable services provided by their public television stations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 12th day of February,
in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Five

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR
